As we pause to reflect on our past three years as student nurses, many thoughts come to mind. In our book "Memories" we have tried to depict some of our most cherished remembrances. We all have our own goals and dreams; plans for the future, but we will never forget the close friends we made and the experiences we had together. Once in awhile we will stop, turn back time, and remember. This is when we hope we can turn to our Memory Books.

TO MOM . . .

The stretch of the years is now long past
Since I was your baby girl,
The years when you mended a broken doll
Or smoothed down a strayed curl.

I've come since then to a woman's place
To my graduation day.
I'm a nurse -- and the dream of my childhood hours
Stands achieved -- and my heart is gay.

But mother, I know I could never have won
If your love hadn't helped me along.
I who was always so weak on the way
You were so ever strong.

Your love and your help, and your kindly praise
These followed me through the years.
A million thanks well up from my heart,
God bless you -- your joy and your tears.

You are my model -- you my ideal
Yours -- ever the love that was true.
God couldn't be with me all of the time
So He gave me a mother like you.

And mother, if ever around my neck
The arms of a baby twine
I only ask God to be like unto you,
You -- little mother of mine.

TO DAD . . .

To-day I'm a nurse -- it seems but a dream
I can hardly believe that it's true.
My training is done -- I have come to the end
And my first grateful thought is, of you.

You, my father, who helped me so much on the way;
You whose love and whose faith was so strong.
Yours the kindness, courage, praise that was there
In times when the way seemed so long.

I know that your proud, Dad, to-day as you see
Your nurse -- just so late your wee tot,
But my pride in you, Dad, rings strong in my heart
God love you -- and bless you a lot.

This is only a verse -- just a "thank-you" in rhyme
But its accents are happy and glad.
For it tells of the love that in gratitude comes
From a graduate nurse to her Dad.
